

19 May 2023

Friday

Zoom

BRINGING JUSTICE FOR UKRAINE. CRIME OF AGGRESSION, WAR CRIMES, CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY, GENOCIDE

09:00 – 09:30

Introductory words

prof. Piotr Hofmański, president of the International Criminal Court

dr Michał Laskowski, president of the Supreme Court Criminal Chamber, Poland

Stanislav Kravchenko, President of the Supreme Court Criminal Chamber, Ukraine

prof. Yuri Baulin, president of Ukrainian Section of AIDP

prof. Paweł Wiliński, president of Polish Section of AIDP

09:30 – 11:00

Panel 1: Crimes Committed in Ukraine

Moderator: judge Serhii Fomin, Supreme Court, Ukraine

Crime of Aggression and Conflict in Ukraine

prof. Patrycja Grzebyk, University of Warsaw, Poland

War Crimes Committed in Ukraine

prof. Kostiantyn Zadoia, Taras Shevchenko Kyiv National University, Ukraine

Introduction of War Crimes Definition to Ukrainian Code of Criminal Law

prof. Mykhaylo Shepitko, Yaroslav Mudryi National Law University, Ukraine

Crimes against Humanity in Ukraine

prof. Hanna Kuczyńska, INP PAN, Poland

Possibility of Prosecution for Genocide

prof. Viacheslav Tuliakov, National University «Odesa Law Academy», Ukraine

11:15 – 12:45

Panel 2: National Prosecution and Universal Jurisdiction

Moderator: prof. Małgorzata Wiąsek – Wiaderek, judge of the Supreme Court, Poland

Regaining Justice for Ukraine. National and International instruments

dr Anna Adamska-Gallant, EU Project Pravo-Justice Ukraine, Poland

Prosecuting Crimes Committed in Ukraine by Ukrainian Legal System. Case study of current trials

Zera Kozlyeva, Senior Legal Advisor in Truth Hounds, experienced prosecutor of General Prosecutor's Office of Ukraine

Collecting Information of Evidence of Crimes Committed in Ukraine for Future Criminal Trials

dr Ewa Hofmańska, Sunflowers Project, Poland

Universal Jurisdiction and prosecution of crimes committed in Ukraine. Mapping programme

Anya Neystat, Clooney Foundation for Justice, USA

13:00 – 14:30

Panel 3: International Prosecution of Crimes

Moderator: prof. Oksana Senatorova, Yaroslav Mudryi National Law University, Ukraine

Universality and effectiveness of the International Criminal Court

prof. David Donat Cattin, New York University, University of Verona

Prosecuting for crimes committed in Ukraine by International Criminal Court

prof. Matthew Gillett, former prosecutor at the ICC and the ICTY, associate professor at the University of Essex

Creation of International Criminal Tribunal for Ukraine (ICTU)

ambassador Anton Korynevych, Ukraine

International or Hybrid Criminal Court for Ukraine (ICCU). Legal Boundaries for establishing a special Court

prof. Paweł Wiliński, judge Supreme Court of Poland, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań

14:30 – 15:00

Closing remarks

Resolution of the Members of the Conference