ACTIVITIES REPORT

Brazilian Group of International Association of Penal Law

Dear Memers,

As president of the GBAIDP, and with great honor, I submit the 2021 activities report.

Due the COVID19 pandemic and the social distancing measures, some adjustments had to be provided regarding the events logistics.

Overcoming this difficulties, the following events were held: VI Symposium of Young Members from the AIDP's Brazilian Group, held on April 8th and 9th regarding: DATA, NEW TECHNOLOGIES AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE: REPERCUSSIONS ON MATERIAL/CRIMINAL LAW, PROCEDURAL LAW, CRIMINOLOGY AND CRIMINAL POLICY.

The event had the participation of Professor Carlos Eduardo Japiassú, as Keynote Speaker and Debaters Eduardo Saad-Dinis, Rhenan Ferreira and Wilson Melo.

During the symposium, papers were selected for publication:

- Data about public safety in Brazil imprecision, opacity and deficiency in the elaboration and evaluation of public policies (Ana Carolina de Moraes Colombaroli and Victor Gabriel de Oliveira Rodriguez);
- Automated facial recognition by algorithms, public safety and the government of urban populations (Diego José Dias Mendes);
- PredPol – reinventing justifications for police occupation in territories of inequality (Gabriel Brezinski Rodrigues);
- Blockchain and Pharmaceutical Industry: New frontiers in Criminal Compliance (Gabielli Duarte);
- Artificial Intelligence as an aid to violence against women (Paula Yurie Abiko and Larissa Tomazoni);
- The importance of the decision of the Federal Supreme Court in ordinary appeal n. 973837-MG as a political-criminal indicative north in addition to the use of genetic material in order to maintain a state-owned database (Pedro Guilherme Borato).

This book is in the editing phase.
