

Chinese National Group Annual Report of 2023

I. AIDP Members

Up to today, the Chinese National Group has nearly 130 members, and most of them are professors and researchers from universities and some of them are judges, prosecutors and lawyers, who have made remarkable achievements in penal justice practices.

II. Membership

1. Individuals: For the 2023, according to the statistics of the secretariat of Chinese Group, 56 Chinese members have made their annual membership contribution (in total 2285 Euros) to AIDP. Besides, 10 Chinese students of BNU enrolled for Siracusa Institute Courses 2023 as young penalists and they also paid their membership fees together with course fees.

2. Chinese Group fee: The secretariat of Chinese Group has also assisted China Law Society in transferring the membership fees (110 Euros) of National Group to AIDP.

III. Conference and Activities

1. On 10-11 December 2022, we have hold the 6th International Forum on Persons Sought for Corruption and Asset Recovery and Cross-border Corruption Governance. More than 100 experts and scholars from China, the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime, the International Association of Criminal Law, Northeastern University of the United States, the University of Rio de Janeiro in Brazil, the University of Salorno in Italy, Georgia New Horizon

University in the United States, Arhat Puton University in the United Kingdom and other countries and regions attended the forum online.

2. On 26th October 2022, we have hold the 34th BNU Anti-Corruption Forum and Mr. Zhang Xiaoming delivered the lecture on Anti-Corruption International Cooperation.
3. On 19 October 2022, we have hold the 33th BNU Anti-Corruption Forum and Dr. Xu Ke have delivered the lecture on “INTERPOL and Transnational Fugitive Repatriation Practice and Cases”.
4. From 23 May to 2 June 2022, we have organized 25 students from law school of BNU to attend the Siracusa International Criminal Course on “The Changing Landscape of International Justice”.
5. On 28 May 2022, we have hold the International Forum on Corporate Compliance in Beijing.
6. Preparing and selecting a delegation to attend the 2024 summit.